

No Harassment or Unauthorized Visitors

We will enforce California Penal Code Section 647(i), the Ralph Civil Rights Act (Civil Code section 51.7), California Civil Code Section 1708.89, and all other applicable laws.

These statutes protect us from violence against persons and property due to protected characteristics, loitering on this property or peeking into doors or windows without visible or lawful business with the owner/occupant, and unlawfully sharing people's personally identifiable information online or through electronic means for the purpose of intentionally causing unwanted physical contact, injury, or harassment.

